

CAILLAUX WAS IN TOUCH WITH GERMAN AGENTS

State Department Publishes Intercepted Diplomatic Communications

VON BERNSTORFF WARNED BERLIN TO USE CAUTION

Planned Capture of Ship On Which Caillaux Carried Important Papers

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Jan. 16.—From its mysterious stock of intercepted diplomatic communications the state department today published correspondence between Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador here, and the Berlin foreign office, showing that former Premier Caillaux of France was in communication with German agents in Argentina in 1915.

The first Bernstorff dispatch contained very damaging references to Caillaux's relations to the French government and warned German newspapers against praising him.

Another gave notice of the ship on which Caillaux was sailing from Argentina and planned its capture by submarines.

The capture of the ship was sought because her captain carried important papers. The German government was asked to treat Caillaux with every courtesy, and consideration of the ship taken.

Following is the text of the message sent by Bernstorff:

"Buenos Aires telegraphed the following: Caillaux has left Buenos Aires after a short stay and is going direct to France evidently on account of the (group) undecipherable) scandal which he regards as a personal attack on himself. He speaks contemptuously of the president and the rest of the French government with the exception of Briand. He sees through the policy of England perfectly. He does not anticipate the complete overthrow of France. He sees in the war now a struggle for existence on the part of England. Although he spoke much of the indiscretions and clumsy policy of the Wilhelmstrasse and professed to believe in German atrocities, he has in essentials hardly changed his political orientation. Caillaux welcomed indirect courtesies from me but emphasized the extreme caution which he is obliged to show as the French government, he said, had him watched even here. He warns us against the excessive praise bestowed upon him by our papers, especially the Neue Freie Presse and desires on the other hand that the Mediterranean and Morocco agreements should be adversely criticized. Our praise injures his position in France. Caillaux's reception here was cool. His report about Brazil had nothing new. On his return to France he will begin to reside in his own constituency. He fears Paris and the fate of Jaures."

SELECTS WILL BRAVE WEATHER ON RIFLE RANGE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Jan. 16.—Despite zero weather which has forced most of Camp Sherman's selects to take to the protection of barracks heaters, the thirty-third division artillery men will brave the rigorous weather on the new artillery range within the next 48 hours.

Under the weather selects were sent from Battery D, of the 32d light field artillery, are all ready to go to the artillery range to begin firing. The men are from Dayton and western Ohio counties.

In addition to the single battery which will fire for four or five days, until it has completed its course other artillery men will be detailed to the big range to help take care of the targets and to act as guards.

The selects will be honored in Sibbey tents which will accommodate five men. The tents will be floored and banked so as to keep out the cold. The hundred and fifty selects who have been at the range for the past ten days raised a protest when it was hinted that they might be recalled to camp here, so well do they like the change, the officers say.

The men of the 32d will fire first, followed by the batteries of the 32d light field artillery, by which time Colonel T. A. Ashburn, commanding both the artillery brigade and the 32d heavy field artillery, hopes to have heavy field pieces for his own regiment to fire on the range.

Officers today again sounded a warning to civilians to keep away from the artillery range and to leave all projectiles or parts of projectiles alone. The range will be heavily guarded and no civilians will be allowed to witness the firing, it was said today.

Five thousand selects taken at random from various units of the 32d division, are being examined for foot defects at the base hospital this week.

The examination, which is being held under the supervision of Captain C. T. Sturgeon, is in accordance with an order from the surgeon general's department at Washington and Captain Sturgeon will report the results of his findings to that department direct. Ohio and Western Pennsylvania selects have good feet, Captain Sturgeon said today. He said they have stood up well under the work here considering the fact that many of them were unaccustomed to long walks. The examinations include width and length measurements of both feet while the men carry a weight of 40 pounds on their backs. The work will be completed by the end of the week.

The present army show is heartily approved by army officers here. The men of the 32d division have had as hard work in their training as any other command, they say, and the fact that none of the men have been found to be suffering from foot trouble as the result of their constant marching is taken to indicate the general excellence of the present foot gear.

Camp Sherman's conservation program will be augmented still more in conjunction with similar additional conservation at all other army camps following complaints of Federal Food Administrator Hoover and to the quartermaster general and the secretary of war. Lieutenant Colonel Walter De Witt, division surgeon, has been appointed officer in charge of food conservation, while the commanding officer of the school for barbers and cooks will be his assistant in the work.

The memorandum from General Glenn's headquarters states that it is not the purpose of the move to limit the rations given the men or to deprive them of anything, to which they are legally entitled.

OFFICIALS RUSH FOOD AND COAL THROUGH STORM

Every Effort Being Made to Relieve Situation in the East

THOUSANDS OF CARS ARE FROZEN TO THE SIDINGS

State Railroad Commissions In Conference With McAdoo On Conditions

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Jan. 16.—Efforts to move food and coal for the relief of New York and New England were redoubled by the railroad administration today in the face of the worst situation within the last week of traffic-paralyzing weather.

Fresh snows in the middle west yesterday on top of the heavy blizzards of last week added to the work of clearing tracks and extricating thousands of cars frozen to sidings. Temperatures were higher in most sections but it was not warm enough to give material aid to the gangs of workmen pressed into service in yards and terminals.

The railroad administration acknowledges it could do little against the weather except distribute cars, locomotives and snowplows where they were most needed and orders accordingly went forward for the transfer of equipment of certain lines.

R. H. Aishton, president of the Chicago and Northwestern railway is in Washington conferring with Director McAdoo regarding his situation in the middle west. It was said he would be made the administration representative in Chicago to direct the traffic in that section as A. H. Smith is doing in the east.

The director general today planned to receive members of various state railroad commissions who are here to give assurance of their support to the plan of government control of roads, and determine the government's intentions toward state regulations and the authority of state commissions under government operation. The director general also meets a delegation from the National Industrial Traffic League, shippers' organizations eager to assist in clearing up the congestion.

Appointment of a board of four to investigate increased wage demands of the railroad brotherhoods also was under consideration by Director McAdoo.

The non-essential industries may be closed down for a week or longer, breweries, box factories, glass manufacturers, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

MANAGERS TO ENTER A PROTEST AGAINST CLOSING THEATRES

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Jan. 16.—A committee of local theatrical managers, headed by George M. Cohan, planned to have for Washington today where they have an appointment with President Wilson tomorrow to enter a protest against the proposal to close theatres here three days a week on account of the coal shortage.

The managers will contend, it is said, that very little coal would be saved under the proposed plan, and that not only would the public be deprived of necessary amusement, but thousands of actors, musicians and stage hands would be thrown out of employment.

ATTEMPTED LIFE OF THE PREMIER

(Associated Press Telegram)

Petrograd, Monday, Jan. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—An automobile carrying Nikolai Lenine, the Bolshevik premier, is reported to have been fired upon tonight, when he was driving to a meeting of the council of people's commissars. Four shots were fired. Premier Lenine was not hurt.

The bullets shattered the windows of the automobile. A member of the party with the premier was wounded slightly in the hand.

ITALIANS EXECUTE BRILLIANT SORTIE TAKING PRISONERS AND STORES OF WAR MATERIAL

(Associated Press Telegram)

Italian Army Headquarters, in Northern Italy, Tuesday, Jan. 15.—The enemy, who got the Breno river yesterday in which the Italians inflicted heavy losses on the enemy and captured several hundred prisoners and a large amount of war material, began late in the afternoon and was carried off by infantry. It was directed chiefly against Monte Asolone where the enemy boldly has set up observation posts overlooking the San Lorenzo valley and the Venetian plain leading down to Bassano.

From these heights the enemy, backed up his position on Monte Pertica and Capivale, was a continual menace, his guns having a range of a considerable distance down the valley and over the plain.

The cannonade began toward noon with the Italian batteries being seconded ably by French artillery on their right. A heavy fog screened the movement as the infantry was ordered to advance. It moved straight up the slope of Monte Asolone through snow, mud and slush. The enemy artillery fire grew more intense as the advance proceeded. There was no halt until the positions on Monte Asolone were reached and the enemy advance posts, where observations had been conducted, were swept away. Along the whole line the Italians gained a foothold. Under the concentrated fire of the enemy lines they later were withdrawn slightly after having won the enemy works.

The Austrian forces attempted a number of counter movements without success. The struggle around Monte Asolone continues, but one of the main objects already has been accomplished—that of dislodging the enemy from his works, to say nothing of the prisoners and material taken.

About the same time an incursion into the enemy trenches was made further east around Monte Solero where more prisoners and material were captured. The third bloody fight occurred on the lower Piave where the Italians enlarged their position between the Piave and Sile rivers, and beat back a counter-attack with heavy loss.

An officer who has just returned from Monte Asolone says that the enemy there made his chief resistance with machine guns and did not have time to bring any considerable force of infantry into action. When the Italians first reached the crest they found all the enemy soldiers in their winter quarters in log barracks. A large part of one battalion, including one major and two captains, was captured in one of these buildings.

FLAMES DESTROY A WAREHOUSE FILLED WITH FOOD SUPPLIES

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Jan. 16.—Fire in a big food warehouse filled with government food supplies, located on the Brooklyn waterfront, broke out this forenoon. Four alarms have been turned in. Accumulation of ice is preventing aid from fireboats.

An hour after the discovery of the blaze it was estimated $500,000 damage had been done. Three fireboats were struggling with ice floes in midstream endeavoring to get near the flame-enveloped building.

The structure, known as the Robinson stores of the New York Dock company, occupies nearly an entire block.

DAYTON THEATRE GUTTED BY FIRE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Dayton, Jan. 16.—The Victoria theatre, operated by the Valentine company of Columbus, was gutted by an early morning fire today with a loss estimated at $150,000. The blaze is believed to have originated in the front part of the building.

The "Elbow" theatrical company, playing a two-day engagement lost all its costumes and scenery. Adjoining buildings suffered slightly from the fire. This is the second big theatre fire within the last three months.

UNITED STATES MUST FURNISH 5,000,000 MEN

Sen. McCumber Presents a Gloomy Picture to Senate

NECESSARY TO SPEED UP SHIPBUILDING PROGRAM

Country Must Awaken to a Realization of What is Before Us

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Jan. 16.—Senator McCumber of North Dakota, today gave the senate a gloomy picture of the position of the United States and her allies in emphasizing his plea for radical speeding up of the ship building program. He declared England was now bearing the brunt of the war and asked "how long can she stand this strain?"

The United States must send 5,000,000 troops to balance the man power of the central powers, he said, and seven million would be needed to make the Germans retreat.

"Russia and Rumania are out of the war," asserted Senator McCumber. "Italy is losing ground. France is unable to make any headway. The wall of opposition at the eastern end of the battle line in continental Europe is crumbling. Who can say how long Italy can or will withstand the Teutonic pressure?"

Optimists indeed, he said, are those who will say a single year without additional support with Italy under the heel of the conqueror, with France assailed in the flank, who can prophesy that that country will not quickly be brought under the heel of the same conqueror and England's army left to battle against overwhelming numbers? This is deluding two things: First, The exact situation as it now is; and, second, the possibility of the future, and it is presented with the hope that we will at least partially awaken to a realization of what is before us.

Senator McCumber said the idea that pointing out our weakness discouraged the American people and encouraged the enemy was a mistaken one and declared that we must now learn the lesson that beating will not win this war. He said he had tired of hearing argument that Germany would be reduced to submission by starvation and stated that the central powers control three times as much territory in Europe as does the allies. The balance of resources held by this country, he said, should not be considered until there was tonnage to carry men and products across the seas.

"The entente powers have about reached their limit," he said. "To balance the man power of the central powers this country must have to send five million men."

He argued that another million was necessary to overbalance the geographical advantage of the central nations and another million if the United States and her allies wished to be the aggressors, in other words, seven million men to make the Germans retreat.

"When the United States entered the war the allies cried, 'Give us ships,'" he declared. Senator McCumber said, "We allayed their fears, we assured them we would speed their shipping. We took that duty upon ourselves, the most important, the most vital duty incumbent upon us in this war. And we have neglected that duty beyond any other, shamefully neglected it."

"They tell us it was because of wranglings and disagreements in the shipping board," he declared, and added that he believed there was lack of application of the submarine menace in the bays. What he did not believe any member so unpatriotic to delay shipbuilding while his personal differences were being settled. He declared "we appointed a Kilkenney shipping board and then went to sleep," and later in his address said:

"We know we must supply Great Britain and France and Italy. We know we shall require 5,000,000 men in France before we can ever hope to equalize the forces of the powers pitted against each other. Where is our shipping? Where is it coming from? Possibly God knows; certainly neither the shipping board nor the navy department knows."

Senator McCumber recommended that the United States stop sending soldiers to France now and use all available tonnage for food for the allies, stimulate efforts to attempt to produce a ship immune to torpedo attacks and to make a full and adequate test of reinforced concrete vessels. He said he believed the allies would emerge from the war after securing the peace laid down by President Wilson but was equally certain that unless we came to the support of our allies with shipping facilities many times greater than we propose, some of our allies will fall before we can take their place on the battlefield."

GLASS WORKERS HELP PUSH SALE OF THRIFT STAMPS

Will Meet Sunday to Organize Savings Clubs and Thus Help Win the War.

Both Superintendent Carl Dayton and the employees of the American Bottle company are taking great interest in the War Savings stamp campaign. After a recent meeting of the foremen, held at the suggestion of Mr. Dayton, more than 300 savings accounts were opened by the American Bottle company's employees, and this number has since grown from day to day. At the last regular meeting of the Glassworkers' Union, this war-savings plan was thoroughly discussed, and several of the speakers declared that it was the duty of the organization to co-operate heartily in promoting the sale of Thrift stamps and War Savings stamps. Members of the union pointed out that the bottle company had co-operated with the local war savings committee; had co-operated with the local committee in floating the Liberty loan, in increasing the membership of the Red Cross, and in helping with all of the war-work during the past year. In all of these campaigns the bottle-workers have done their duty, and the spirit shown by the bottle-workers is evidence that they will continue to show their patriotism as long as the war lasts. Speaking for the bottle-workers, Joe Dolan said:

"We know the people of Germany have faith in their government. This is because for the past 40 years the philosophers and professors of Germany have drilled into their minds that it was the destiny of Germany to rule the entire world, and so today we see the German people worshipping the autocratic form of government. We feel that in order to meet autocracy, and to keep autocracy from supplanting democracy in the United States, it is the duty of the American people to be ready and willing to make sacrifices and to bear burdens. It is the duty of the American people to stand behind their government and thus assist in the spread of democracy throughout the world. It is a time for a man to show his colors, and I want to say that the Newark bottle-workers are ready to do their full duty."

After several other addresses along this line, President Dover of the local Glassworkers' Union, appointed the following committee, whose duty it will be to organize the men into Thrift clubs, to promote systematic saving and systematic purchasing of Thrift stamps and War Savings stamps: Theodore Page, chairman; Joe Dolan, publicity; Will Deninger, secretary; Frank Mullenix, Otto Feaster and W. M. Moore.

The Newark bottle-workers are to have a big patriotic meeting, Sunday afternoon, at which time the details of their Thrift organization will be worked out. It is hoped and believed that every member of the organization will take hold of this war-savings campaign, and not only open an account for himself, but will assist in inducing others to join in this movement.

The Newark glassworkers are among the first laboring men to take hold of the war savings campaign, and they are encouraged to do so by the co-operation of the American Bottle company. Superintendent Dayton is keeping constantly on hand a supply of Thrift and War Savings stamps for the convenience of the men employed at the local plant, and the company will encourage the men and assist them in every reasonable way towards keeping up their savings account with the government throughout the year.

GERMANS DENY REPORT.

SHERWOOD MILLER A NEWARK MAN ENLISTS IN NAVY

Sherwood Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller of Hudson avenue, has just volunteered for service in the United States navy, and his brother, Ralph B. Miller, began his new war-work duties at Washington a few days ago.

The Sioux Falls, (S. D.) Argus contains the following notice regarding Mr. Miller's enlistment:

"Sherwood Miller has returned from Omaha where he has spent the last week in taking the necessary examinations for admittance to the United States navy. After passing the numerous tests he was allowed time to clean up business affairs, but to hold himself in readiness to report at once for duty after receiving orders."

"Mr. Miller has been connected with the buying department of Jewett Bros. & Jewett for the last eight years. He was accepted for training in the second officers' training camp at Fort Snelling, but after a month was forced to drop out on account of his health. Mr. Miller also put in his application for admittance to the national army camp at Camp Dodge, but on account of being of draft age was not admitted. He expects to be called for duty in about two weeks."

ITALIANS EXTEND WARM WELCOME TO RED CROSS HEAD

(Associated Press Telegram) Rome, Tuesday, Jan. 16.—The members of the Italian government, senators, deputies, and representatives of the municipality and political, commercial and artistic associations, gathered at the capital today to welcome Robert P. Perkins, head of the permanent Red Cross commission to Italy and to give an imposing demonstration in favor of the United States. Prince Colonna, the mayor of Rome, greeted Colonel Perkins and the other members of the mission and expressed Italy's appreciation of the great work of the American Red Cross. Senator Guglielmo Marconi, recently appointed head of the Italian mission to America, said:

"I have lived long in your great and beautiful country and have learned to love and appreciate the great qualities of the American people, their idealism and innate love of liberty and fair play. It is time to destroy the false that Americans are too highly civilized to allow themselves to be swayed by pure ideals."

"We could repay the help given us in money in kind but the noble impulse which has driven thousands of the best American men and hundreds of noble American women to abandon lucrative positions in answer to the call of our common humanity, that we cannot repay."

Finance Minister Nitti and Thos. Nelson Page, the American ambassador also addressed the gathering.

MASONIC CHORUS BEGINS WORK IN THRIFT CAMPAIGN

The Masonic Temple chorus of 20 members formally organized for the Thrift campaign last night. These men whose singing was an enjoyable feature of the Periodic meeting at the high school auditorium Monday night, not only organized a Thrift club with a pledge for individual and systematic saving and purchase of War Savings stamps regularly throughout the entire year, but they also volunteered their services to the Licking county war savings organization to help spread the gospel of saving throughout the county.

Frank T. Hirst is chairman of the organization. Merle Marshall is secretary, and Prof. C. W. Klop, musical director of the Masonic Temple chorus. Mr. Hirst through his connection with the mail service has been doing effective work in making War Savings stamp sales ever since the stamps were first put on the market a few weeks ago.

The services of the Masonic Temple chorus will be used in promoting the Thrift proposition to the people in the rural and village districts. They will give a fine musical program to be accompanied by a short talk on the war and the value of participating in the Thrift campaign. People living in the villages of Licking county who desire to arrange a public meeting and entertainment in their community for presenting the war savings plan to the people are invited to write to C. H. Spencer, chairman War Savings committee, Newark, O.

INVENTS NEW DRINK WITH A KICK IN IT FOR THE SOLDIERS

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Jan. 16.—Military drinks are the latest thing in Columbus saloons, according to United States District Attorney Stuart R. Bolin.

These military drinks bear military names (and also kicks) and are sold to soldiers in uniform, Bolin says. For instance, a "corporal-ginger ale," sold to soldiers, has a dash of whiskey in it, while a "captain-gingerale" is said to have a real "kick" in it.

Wm. A. Souder, proprietor of a saloon and his bartenders are under arrest in United States court on charges of selling these military drinks.

PLAN TO GET EMPTY COAL CARS TO MINES

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Jan. 16.—Owing to uncertain train service, Governor Cox will not meet Railroad Director General McAdoo in Washington this afternoon, an engagement for a conference there over the Ohio railroad situation having been postponed several days.

State Fuel Administrator H. H. Johnson, who conferred with the governor yesterday regarding the coal situation, returned to Washington to further work plans of getting empty coal cars to mines and transporting coal by shortest and most direct routes, the two factors Governor Cox informed him are the most important now.

Administrator Johnson said that one of the most important matters to determine now, is what are non-essentials.

"Plants making non-essentials are not supposed to get coal when it is more badly needed elsewhere, but who is there to say what are non-essentials?" remarked the state fuel administrator.

According to reports he has obtained and reports to other state officials, railroads have helped relieve fuel shortages in several sections of the state by contributing their own coal. Needs of the state normal school at Bowling Green and of the state hospital at Lima were supplied by the carriers from their own coal.

Governor Cox today telegraphed Railroad Director McAdoo at Washington urging him to issue immediate orders which would release considerable coal to Cleveland and northeastern Ohio and to Cincinnati and southwestern Ohio.

Governor Cox stated in his telegram that 25 cars of coal are tied up in the Hollaway yards near Cleveland by an embargo on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, issued by the superintendent Monday. The cars are billed to Detroit. The governor urged that the cars should be unloaded at northeastern Ohio points badly in need of coal and that the empty cars should be returned to the mines at once.

The telegrams stated also that much coal is tied up in the railroad yards at Russell, Ky., near Cincinnati. Orders from the director general, the message said, would release this coal, which is said to be enough to supply several cities, in one day.

DIED OF WOUNDS.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Ivan Neck, a young engineer of Baltimore, one of the few Americans remaining in the French foreign legion, is said by the Herald to have died of the wound received last week in the attack made on the foreign legion in the neighborhood of Finay.

Allen Blount of St. Louis, another American member of the legion, has obtained a transfer to the American army.

CAILLAUX WAS IN TOUCH WITH GERMAN AGENTS

(Signed) "Bernstorff."

The instruction of the German censorship to the German press on June 16, 1917, follows:

"For political reasons it is urgently requested that nothing be written about the former French prime minister Caillaux and that his name be not mentioned under any circumstances."

This correspondence, although no official announcement to that effect is available, is made public by arrangement with the French government which desired its exposure. Caillaux now is waiting trial in France for treason on revelations developed by the celebrated Bolo Pasha case.

FRENCH DEPUTIES SUSTAIN ACTION IN CAILLAUX CASE.

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, Jan. 16.—Louis Loustalot, member of the French chamber of deputies from Landes, whose immunity recently was suspended in connection with the Caillaux case, was arrested this morning.

The chamber of deputies sustained the government's action in the Caillaux case late yesterday by a majority of 24 out of the 484 members present. The vote was taken after the government had been interpellated by Ernest Lafont, a socialist deputy, who held that the opening of Caillaux's safe deposit box in Italy in the absence of a representative of the accused was illegal.

Premier Clemenceau was called upon by the socialists to reply. Edouard Ignace, under secretary for military justice however, answered for the government, saying that the case was in the hands of the department of justice and was following the usual course.

After repeated calls, Premier Clemenceau rose from the government bench and said it was the Italian government which had presided at the search of the safe in the Florence bank, and France was obliged to suppose that all legal form had been observed.

Teh chamber then by a vote of 379 to 105 gave precedence to a resolution, accepted by the government over a resolution introduced by the socialists. The socialist resolution invited the government to observe legal forms and the principles of justice in a prosecution of the cases being investigated.

POULTRY SHOW
A BIG SUCCESS

The poultry show being held this week by the Licking County Fanciers' Association was slightly handicapped at the beginning of the week, by the congested traffic delaying shipment of exhibits, but today a large exhibit is being shown and judging started this morning.

The show is open from 10 o'clock in the morning until 10 in the evening and some unusual exhibits are found. Bert Crawford has an interesting exhibit of wild geese and peafowls, and Ohio State University has the state exhibit of wild animals and birds. The show is attracting large crowds to the Knights of Columbus building, formerly the old Seisher building.

THE GERMAN VIEW.

Our people are not fighting for any particular city, country, or tract of land. What they are fighting for is to get it out of the hands of the German people that war is a paying proposition.

The German military experts have been beating it into the heads of their people for many years that war is a paying game. By war valuable territories and their resources can be seized and made available for commercial expansion.

As to the cost of war, the German people have believed that the other fellows could always be made to pay that. As the result of the Franco-Prussian war, the Germans got Alsace-Lorraine with coal and other mines tremendously valuable in commercial expansion.

From the standpoint of robbery and piracy, it was a big paying proposition. It is not surprising that it has become thoroughly ingrained in the German mind, that a prosperous nation must have a war about once every 30 or 40 years, and that it must be strong enough in a military way to dictate terms of peace, and make it a paying proposition.

If this war ends so that Germany still thinks war pays, there will be another war in due time to gather in some more spoil. Meanwhile, all the nations will have to provide an enormous standing army and navy so as to be ready for instant mobilization, the moment Germany thinks the time has come to start on another pirate cruise. As the nation that his first gets a perfectly tremendous advantage, every nation will have to be so perfectly organized that it can hit Germany before she hits them. That means a staggering burden for armament. It is cheaper to finish up the job at once, and get it out of Germany's head that war pays.

VALUE OF DRILL.

Many people, reading how trench-fighting has abolished old styles of military formation, wonder what is the use of all this drill at the army camps. It is not as in the Civil war, when the armies faced each other in serried ranks. It is more like irregular Indian fighting.

To this it can be replied that the strict drill of military science, according to the standard formations, is a splendid practice in enabling a man to think and act quickly. The raw recruit finds his mind does not act with any speed. He gets his feet tangled up with each other, he falls out of line. After a few weeks of it his mind and muscles are more alert, and he can act instantly and correctly in obeying orders.

Drill gives the individual soldier the confident feeling of being one of a mass of men. And it enables those men to be handled in the least possible time, so that they can be most effective either for offense or defense.

It is a great art for an officer to get these results. He needs even more than the men, the power to quick thought. While the men are doing one thing, he must be able to think quickly and know what they are to do next. His orders must be given in a clear, peremptory voice, with a certain explosive force. He must learn to open his mouth so that his orders could be heard amid the tumult of battle, and in wide-open air spaces.

He needs to learn consideration for his men, not to put them through difficult ground except for good reason. Personal appearance counts something, as the soldiers will follow a trim, clean-looking man better than a slovenly one. Drill, and the commanding of drill, is what makes the soldier, and it is what turns raw levies into a unified striking force.

STRENUOSITY.

A certain class of literature much in vogue nowadays admonishes young people to strive and struggle with all their might for business success. For the majority of persons it is very good advice. Most people work by the clock, their mind is not always on their task, and when time is up they think and plan no more for their advancement. Then they wonder why they don't get ahead.

Meanwhile of those who are really striving and pushing ahead, as our apostles of vim and vigor are urging, half of them injure their health by the time they have achieved their business goal.

It is too bad that the lazy people and the strenuous ones can't be a little more mixed up and share their qualities with each other. A business success attained at the cost of a physical breakdown is hardly worth while. The man of good common sense works with all his might during business hours, and then he takes recreation enough so that he keeps in physical trim. This working nights and Sundays may pile up riches a few years quicker, but the prices must be paid, and often it is an early end to one's career.

OUR STOCK OF GOLD.

The gold monetary stock (coin and bullion used as money) in the United States on November 1, 1917, is estimated in Secretary McAdoo's annual report at $3,041,500,000. The increase in the past 10 months has been $174,500,000, and in the past three years $1,236,500,000. In five years the portion of the world's gold monetary stock held by the United States has increased from approximately one-fifth to more than one-third.

The question is asked what has become of the boy who used to dream of being a railroad section man and riding around the country. Well his hair is pretty well grizzled now, while his son would be just about satisfied with one of those new twin six-cylinder motor cars.

After issuing a call for strict economy, the politicians get busy making out extensive lists of absolute necessities for their own districts.

The Germans say that President Wilson's peace terms are all a case of American bluff. And then they go on to remark that they propose to fight until their last child is gone.

The parcel post won't be wholly popular until the postmaster gets out his automobile and drives out to get a package as soon as it is ready.

It is argued by the people who are making money from commercialized vice, that this is not a proper subject to discuss in mixed company.

The men always kick about the high prices of dressmaking, and then they hang around the best-dressed women at the parties.

Not merely would sugar bowls the size of a thimble be appropriate now, but they would convey a gentle hint to the family.

The president is reported as very reticent, but that little difficulty is gotten over by a reporter with any imagination.

A job as farm hand will never be popular as long as the help have to get up in the morning when the farmer does.

SOLDIER INSURANCE.

To the man who has gone to the colors the United States government offers the safest, the most liberal, and the cheapest insurance on the face of the earth. Approximately 300,000 men have already accepted the government's offer, applying for insurance of about two and three-quarter billions of dollars. The average amount applied for per man is more than $8600, which is very close to the $10,000 maximum provided for by the law.

This insurance total, great as it is, should be only a beginning. Every person in the military and naval forces of the nation owes to himself and to those he loves to avail himself of the full insurance protection. But the time in which he can do so is limited. Prompt action is imperative.

Those who joined the service before October 15, 1917, must apply for the insurance on or before February 12, 1918. After that, it will be too late. The automatic insurance which is provided until February 12, 1918, is only partial protection.

Parents, brothers, and sisters, who have a representative of their family in army or navy should, for their own sake, and for him, write to him at once urging him, if he has not already done so, to buy the government insurance. They should urge him to buy the full $10,000, and, above all, to buy it now.

IRELAND AND GERMANY.

(New York Times.)

Some astonishment, strangely enough, seems to be mingled with the grief and anger felt in the Irish city of Waterford at the sinking by German submarines of two steamers owned and manned by Irishmen and carrying Irish passengers. The astonishment must be due to the existence there, hitherto, of the belief, so laboriously cultivated by one Irish class, that any enemy of England must necessarily be the friend of Ireland, and that German friendship has the ordinary implications of the same quality or emotion in other people.

This pathetic illusion no longer exists in Waterford, for such affection as Germany feels for Ireland as a trouble of British policy did not prevent her submarine commanders from attacking the two Irish vessels and sending them to the bottom with all on board. The only effect it had, apparently, was that the commanders made a special effort, in the case of one ship successfully, to render the destruction complete—in other words, to carry out the advice which the now-famous Luxemburg gave with respect to the ships of Argentina, another object of German friendship. This amiable intention was foiled by the drifting ashore on the Welsh coast of the wreckage that has been identified as coming from the second of the two Irish ships.

As Waterford knows that the crews and passengers of British steamers are usually allowed to row ashore if they can, with only a little desultory shelling, after they have been set adrift, her people are revising the faith they formerly had in the value of German friendship, and have reluctantly come to the conclusion that, dangerous as is German hostility to sailor folk, it is preferable to its opposite. To some such view, according to report, several other even more efficient vessels of Germany, including Turkey, Bulgaria, and Austria-Hungary, are coming, or have already arrived. Germany is for Germany, ruthlessly and wholly, and she has, not friends, but tools, to be used, worn out, and broken as fast as her own interest demands.

BE PROUD OF YOUR BODY.

(Physical Culture Magazine.)
The building of a sound body and vigorous health will help to give you a more normal mental attitude. A normal physical condition usually means a normal mind, and this means an instinctive aversion to anything abnormal. As a rule, anything that may be called a bad habit is a practice of something that is abnormal.

Not only is it essential to cultivate pride in your body, but to cultivate pride in other respects. Perhaps you will better understand what I mean if I say self-respect, for that is what pride means in its best sense. In doing this it will help you to cultivate both cleanliness and neatness of dress. The old saying that "cleanliness is next to godliness" has a sound, psychological basis. Just as soon as you get cleaned up both in respect to your person and your attire you feel an increased sense of respect for yourself.

WHOLE-HEARTED LOYALTY.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
That American labor is loyal has been repeatedly stated, and proved, since this nation entered the war. Another striking demonstration is offered by the action of the Ohio miners' convention in session at Columbus last week, which approved an amendment to the union constitution providing that an alien who has lived in this country three years and has taken no step to become naturalized shall no longer be eligible to membership in the organization.

This is no half-way measure of patriotism. It proceeds on the perfectly sound assumption that an alien three years in America who has not signified his willingness to become a part of the nation is at heart indifferent if not disloyal. There should be no place in any loyal organization for such a slacker. The example of the Ohio miners should be followed by other organizations. It seems likely to set a precedent, particularly for other unions.

Don't drop your money into the scale of non-essential expenditure. Help win the war by buying War Savings Stamps.

Freedom of the Sea.

What does Germany understand by the freedom of the seas? Of course, we do not mean by it the free use of the seas, which is the common privilege of all nations in time of peace, or the right to the open highways of international trade. That sort of freedom of the seas we had before the war.

What we understand today by this doctrine is that Germany should possess such maritime territories and such naval bases that at the outbreak of war we should be able, with our navy reasonably ready, to guarantee ourselves the command of the seas. We want such a jumping off for our navy as would give us a fair chance of dominating the seas and of being free on the seas during a war. A German view as interpreted by Count Reventlow.

What Reed Might Think.

It is 15 years since Thomas B. Reed died. He was the originator of the phrases "a billion-dollar country," in explanation of the first billion-dollar Congress. Not long afterward we had a billion-dollar session, and just before the war a two-billion-dollar session. Now we are looking to a session that may authorize the expenditure of 13 billion dollars.

What would Reed think of these changed conditions? No doubt he would have become easily accustomed to them, as the rest of us have. There has been an extraordinary adaptation of the public mind to the requirements of the new era in our national development.—Providence Journal.

An Example to Be Followed.

Here's hoping that responsible authority at Washington has not missed Mayor Hyland's decision to cut out press agents and publicity promoters. Throughout this country there is an uncomfortable feeling that it would be difficult to find some of our vaunted war preparation outside the fertile brains of press agents and publicity promoters attached to officialdom at the national capital. Despite their longings for tropical breezes there is one kind of hot air which the American people are willing to do without.—New York Herald.

In Two Counties.

While senators of the United States are heaving bricks at a very mild and scrupulous food administrator here the British nation puts itself on war rations without a murmur against the controller who decrees the measures over there. One motive of the British administration in instituting compulsory rations is to lighten the food drain on America if possible. The spirit of this act is better appreciated by the American people than will that of the senatorial criticism of Mr. Hoover.—Boston Transcript.

The New York Idea.

The idea is excellent that if the police department of New York were a new police commissioner, Mr. Bugher, fails to meet its primary responsibilities to the city should be placed under martial law by the United States government for the duration of the war. New York is more than a municipality just now; it is the country's chief Atlantic seaport and its military importance to the United States government is incalculable.—Springfield Republican.

MADE IN HADES

Here is a confidential letter from the devil to the kaiser, decoded by Eugene H. Blake of the Vigilantes: Infernal Palace, Hades.

My dear Wilhelm:
Before we started this war, any article would sell faster in almost any country if "Made in Germany" was stamped on it. Confidence in the product and good will for Germany put the sale across dead easy. But now my dear Kaiser, look what you've done. You have Plans for World Conquest—"Made in Germany."

It's good work all right, Wilhelm, but if you don't watch out you never can use "Made in Germany" after the war. You gotta think about that, you know. An article marked "Made in Hades" would sell better.

I'm afraid we've over done this thing. What do you think?
Faithfully your friend and ally,

Did You Know

That Benjamin Franklin was born at Boston January 16, 1706? He was the fifteenth of seventeen children. His father was a soap maker. He was apprenticed at twelve to his step-brother, James, who he had a printing office and when in 1720 his brother started a newspaper he contributed a number of articles to it. He went from Boston to Philadelphia where he secured a position in a printing office, afterward becoming editor and proprietor of "The Gazette." In 1752 "Poor Richard's Almanac" appeared, which was afterward published under the title, "The Way to Wealth," and was translated into several languages. Franklin founded the first library in Philadelphia, the first association for extinguishing fires, and the first fire insurance company. In 1752 he discovered the identity of electricity with lightning. In 1757 he was sent to England on a diplomatic mission, returning to America in 1774. In 1776 he was elected a delegate to congress and from that time he exerted himself to the utmost to obtain a declaration of the independence of the thirteen American states. When this declaration was made, July 4, 1776, Franklin was appointed United States Minister to France, where he induced the French government to form an offensive and defensive alliance with the United States. He died in 1790.

Costello-McMahon.
Green and white predominated in the decorations at St. Francis de Sales church, Wednesday morning, when at 8:30 o'clock was solemnized the marriage of Miss Muriel McMahon and Mr. Robert M. Costello.

The high altar was banked with cedar, white carnations and roses. The pews were covered with white and draped with smilax. As the bride and groom marched down the center aisle the wedding march was played by the organist, Miss Carrie Brennan.

The bride wore her traveling suit of seal-brown broadcloth with seal collar and cuffs, and brown shoes. Her hat was of the same shade with a crown of rose silk and the bride's bouquet was a corsage arrangement of spruce and bride's roses.

The bridesmaid was Miss Grace McMahon, sister of the bride, and she wore a suit of blue broadcloth with a hat and shoes of gray. Her bouquet was also a corsage arrangement of pink roses. Mr. Costello was attended by Mr. Sylvester Gator.

Rev. Father B. M. O'Boyle, pastor of the St. Francis de Sales church, celebrated the nuptial mass and read the marriage service. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to only the immediate families at the home of the bride, Bowers avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Costello left on a wedding trip west, and on their return will be at home, 51 North avenue, after February 15.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McMahon, Bowers avenue. She was graduated from the St. Francis de Sales high school and later was graduated from the training school at Mt. Carmel hospital. She has been most successful in the practice of her profession as nurse in Newark. Mr. Costello is the son of the late Bartholomew Costello, North Fourth street, and is an employee of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company.

The members of the G. B. club surprised Russell Rutherford at his home, Fulton avenue, Tuesday evening, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. The members presented him with a high school seal pin, and the hours were devoted to games and music. A delicious luncheon was served the guests.

The members of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Neal Avenue M. E. church will be at the church on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. J. Emery Walters will address the meeting, and any woman interested in mission work is invited to attend.

The card-party given under the auspices of the A. F. F. W. will be held in the Elks club rooms, Thursday afternoon, January 17, at 2 o'clock. Tickets are 50 cents, and are on sale at the Edmiston book-store.

The members of the Trinity Sewing club will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Schroeder, 110 Hudson avenue.

An open-meeting of the Missionary Society of the East Main Street U. E. church was held at the home of Mrs. Daisy Courson, Boylston avenue, Tuesday evening. The program consisted of music and recitations by Juanita Wright, Ruth Duthmer, Marie Trickey, and music by Mr. and Mrs. Baughman. A playlet, "Aunt Elizabeth's Missionary Tea," was given by Mrs. O'Connors, Mrs. Stoffer and Mrs. Strawn.

Mrs. T. B. Driscoll entertained the members of the Sesame club at her home, Boylston avenue, Wednesday. A delightful afternoon was spent in crocheting and knitting, and the hostess had arranged two novel contests. The winners were Mrs. Charles Haines and Mrs. Lawrence Schaller, and Mrs. Geiger was awarded the guest-prize.

During the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served the members and one guest, Mrs. Geiger.

The members of the Unity Reading Circle were entertained at the home of Mrs. F. E. Slabaugh, Tenth street, yesterday, and the following program was given:

Topics of the Day—Quotations—Our Secret Service Men, Mrs. Rhoads; Robert Bruce, Mrs. Howard Barnick; Mrs. B. F. Swingle.

Following the program the election of officers for the coming year was held. President, Mrs. H. W. Rhoads; first vice president, Mrs. H. H. Postle; second vice president, Mrs. F. E. Slabaugh; recording secretary, Mrs. J. C. McDough; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. J. Davis; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Loulin.

Mrs. Stump and Mrs. Lees were guests of the club.

The choir of the First Presbyterian church will be entertained at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin G. Hazlett, Hudson avenue, Thursday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. The invitation includes all members of the choir, together with former members, their husbands and wives.

ANNETTE FORD PITIES GIRLS BORN IN A METROPOLIS

"Why do I pity the girls who are born and bred in the cultured atmosphere of a metropolis?" said Annette Ford, the charming and really brilliant prima donna of "The Princess Pat" company.

"Because they are fed on sauce and have none of the pudding of life. You know, sauce is not the best thing to live on as a steady diet. It is not the girl's fault, but because they are fed on sauce."

"They are afflicted with self-pity. They only know the pleasures of their city environment. They were blinded by the glamour of their senses and resented what nature was trying to do for them with such lavish color and form and sound."

Within two weeks she had converted these sophisticated creatures into happy, joyous children almost unconsciously. One day, one of the girls forgot to curl her hair, the next a ribbon was discarded. The others followed suit and before the end of the week, bloomers had succeeded the spic and span dresses, and the conventional garments and adornments had been relegated to other days. They beheld a new life with eager views, and the days were not long enough for them. I heard no more of the lament, "What shall we do?" Laughter and song filled the old rock caves and echoed across the waters. The change was marvelous.

Their hair was dressed in the latest fashion set by our most popular dancer. They were evidently not arrived at the age of 15, but their manners were, plainly bored. They plied the country clerk with such questions: "Dear me, don't you have any dances here? Is there nothing going on in this burg? We are bored to death. Nothing has happened all day."

"They were afflicted with self-pity. They only know the pleasures of their city environment. They were blinded by the glamour of their senses and resented what nature was trying to do for them with such lavish color and form and sound."

ly the mayor released him this morning. John Homeagan will not see "home again" for a few days, for he was fined $5 and costs and was committed to the county jail on an intoxication charge. Sam Sheridan and Walter Allen were arrested last night and are being held at the city prison on an investigation charge.

New Postoffice Building.

Work on the interior of the new federal building has been delayed by failure of ornamental iron and marble to arrive. A shipment of marble has just been received. The plasterers are at work and the contractor is making as rapid progress as possible under the circumstances.

Confined to Hospital.

Lowell Woodward, who was employed by Criss Bros. at the time he was drafted into the 324th H. F. A., is confined to the base hospital, Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, with an attack of scarlet fever.

Police Court.

Clarence Ayres of Dayton, who says he has a home at the Soldiers Home, Dayton, fell from grace yesterday, shortly after being released from the county jail, and was taken in town again for being drunk. He promises to leave town immediately.

Save Your Tablecloths and Sheets From Wear on Washday

Avoid boiling the clothes, use Fels-Naptha soap. Boiling weakens fabrics and makes possible the holes that come from hard rubbing. Fels-Naptha makes boiling and hard rubbing unnecessary. Spots and stains come out quickly with ever so little rubbing.

And remember, Fels-Naptha's whitest of white suds keep all white clothes white.

My Sore throat feels better, Mother, Dr. King's Discovery for Coughs & Colds has been easing sore throats in all parts of the country for 50 years. It is the national cough and cold remedy. Containing balsam it soothes, heals and reduces inflammation and congestion. Drests up the fever, too, and cools the raw spots. The kiddie likes it, says Dr. King's Discovery to cough children.

Keep Bowel Movement Regular.
Dr. King's New Life Pills keep you in a healthy condition. Rid the body of poisons and waste. Improve your complexion by keeping the bowels regular. Get a bottle from your druggist to-day. Effective but mild.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound, mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results. So I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. B. CRAWLING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. ELISE HEIM, R. No. 6, Box 83, Lowell, Mich.

Constipation Makes Baby Uncomfortable

When its tender little organs are bound up with a congestion of stomach wastes the baby is a mighty uncomfortable morsel of humanity, and reflects its discomfort in its disposition. Mother will just give a tiny dose of a mild laxative, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin; the congestion will quickly loosen and be expelled, and her child be normal and happy once more.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is especially desirable for children because it contains no opiate or narcotic drug, being a combination of simple laxative herbs with a sin, mild and gentle in action, positive in effect, and very palatable. Children like it and take it readily. Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents a bottle; a trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 155 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

SPECIAL OBSERVANCE FOR THRIFT DAY ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4

General observance in Ohio of National Thrift Day, February 4 (the holiday date falls on Sunday, February 3), does not indicate there will be any lessening of the campaign for promotion of Thrift throughout the remainder of the year, the Ohio War Savings committee announces. Every day will be a Thrift Day and every week a Thrift Week, the plan of the state organization.

Word will be issued to the 88 county chairmen by the Ohio War Savings committee to secure a special observance of Thrift Day on Monday, February 4. Plans will be outlined in each community to insure every person owning at least one War Savings stamp or Thrift stamp. There will be a "one-day drive" on that date preceded and followed by an intensive year-around Thrift campaign.

Special significance attaches to National Thrift Day in 1918. Participation in a greater or lesser degree, by every person in the nation will be doubly productive. The primary need will be that of sending active and substantial moral and financial support to the government in its period of war-time distress; the other will operate to the profit of the individual.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, Jan. 16.—The business session held each meeting of the A. F. F. W. toward the end of the afternoon, never interferes with actual work, but on the other hand has been one of the strongest agencies in maintaining and stimulating interest for over a year. Each week every member of the organization knows exactly where it stands, its liabilities and assets; the work accomplished, both at headquarters and at homes; the gifts and the donors; letters from Paris and New York headquarters, acknowledging the receipt of shipments, as well as the reading of brief newspaper articles and editorials from time to time which especially appeal to women workers. At yesterday's meeting a satisfactory amount of work was accomplished besides the great number of gifts brought in, such as a pair of blankets from the "Pioneer Mendocino Bee," a consignment from the "Three M's and L. circle," of some three dozen articles, including a wool bed comfort, a dozen complete pillows, a dozen handkerchiefs, etc., a consignment from the North street society, of pillows, comfort bags and trench candles; pretty crib comfort, donated by Miss Louise Williams, and other articles too numerous to mention. Mrs. Loughridge received the knitted garments for the Red Cross, a great stack of them, including 20 sweaters. Mrs. Perry reported a balance of $67.43 on hand. Mrs. Odebrecht spoke briefly on request, of her husband's acquaintance with Lieut. Perigord at the University of Chicago, and of some of the more interesting phases of his work in this country. Miss Gough read a card from Miss Scarborough, saying that "shipment 13 would be sent on the next steamer." Miss Minnie Jones read a Paris letter; Mrs. Biggs a description of a French village and the return of the reparations. Mrs. Griffith a timely editorial, all of which had a bearing on the work as well as individual interest.

Rev. Harry Walker, Vincent, D. D., of Toledo, who was to have opened the work of special meetings in the Granville Baptist church on the 16th, was prevented by the railway traffic blockade from reaching here on time. He arrived Tuesday evening after the beginning of the service, having spent all day in travel. He will preach tonight on "Barriers of the Kingdom," and every night except Saturday during this week and next, he will occupy the pulpit in the Baptist church. The public is cordially invited to any or all of these services.

The Fortnightly club met at the home of the vice president, Miss Ruth Hopkins, on Tuesday evening, where about thirty active members assembled at 8 o'clock for an appetizing dinner provided by the social committee. Mrs. J. D. Thompson, Mrs. John Owen and Miss Bancroft were the three associates present. Following the dinner the annual business of the club was transacted, the election of officers resulting as follows: President, Mrs. K. S. Hines; vice president, Miss Ruth Hopkins; secretary, Miss Gertrude Carpenter; corresponding secretary, Miss Jane Williams; treasurer, Mrs. G. E. Jones; critic, Miss Una Ackley. The whole occasion was most enjoyable.

Mrs. Frank Ray spent the day in Columbus yesterday, the guest of friends.

Miss M. E. Penney of Newark spent Tuesday in Granville at work for the A. F. F. W.

Mrs. P. G. Corden, a new comer in Granville, made her appearance at A. F. F. W. headquarters yesterday.

The death of Mrs. David Lewis occurred Tuesday afternoon at her home on the Columbus road, following a brief illness. She is survived by her husband, and a daughter, Miss Anna Lewis. She was a sister of Henry Jones, T. B. Jones and Miss Hannah Jones, all residents of Granville. Funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church, Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Messrs. Bucher, Watson and Clark, members of Phi Delta Theta fraternity went to Columbus and enlisted Saturday.

Who Will Win This Battle?

Much of your comfort depends upon knowing that your system will perform its functions properly.

Your kidneys are the filters of the body. If they become inactive and fail to eliminate the waste matter, they are apt to throw the whole mechanism of the body out of order, thus toxic poisons can accumulate in the system and be as deadly as snake venom.

Besides causing the minor ailments of rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and backache, a clogged kidney system is apt to develop into more serious diseases, such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

Rid the body of toxic poisons—clean the bladder and kidneys and cure the twinges of rheumatism with Anuric (double strength).

As was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and has benefited thousands of sufferers as well as appeased and eliminated the ravages of the more serious kidney diseases. Now procurable at any good drug store.

If you have rheumatism or kidney trouble, try Anuric. My husband and I are very enthusiastic over what Anuric has done for us. It cured me of rheumatism in the hands and feet, and also uncomfortable bloatings. Just a week's treatment with Anuric made me feel like a different person. My husband took this medicine for backache and high colored kidney excretion and it made a wonderful change in him. The backache has entirely disappeared and the water has cleared up splendidly. We cannot say too much in praise of Anuric. In fact, I wouldn't keep home without it."—Mrs. CORA MCKEY, 3307 Bower Avenue.

THRIFT CLUB

In order to help stimulate the sale of U. S. Government Thrift Stamps and War Savings Certificates, and to encourage the now much desired qualities of industry, thrift and wholesome realization of patriotic duty by the young boys of this community, ROE EMERSON, the Clothier, Hatter and Outfitter, at Cor. 3rd and Main, Newark, has inaugurated a feasible plan by which any boy-wearer of knee trousers may avail himself of becoming one of America's active supporters without cost to him. The plan is simple: with each cash purchase of clothing—furnishings or headgear to the amount of $5, at one or any number of times, by or for use of any boy-wearer of knee trousers, he will give free one 25 cent Thrift Stamp. Amount of each purchase to be punched in the margin of a Thrift Trading Card issued to each boy by Roe Emerson, and which may be renewed as occasion requires. Every knee-trouser-wearer is invited to join this helpful band of thrifters, and to call at Roe Emerson's store, Cor. 3rd and Main, for one of the Thrift Trading Cards, which will be ready for distribution Thursday, Jan. 17th.

VIRGINIA SCHOOL TEACHER TELLS WAY TO RELIEVE STOMACH TROUBLE

For Three or Four Years Suffered Himself With Indigestion, Lack of Appetite, and Would Often Have Nervous, Dizzy, Vomiting Spells After Breakfast.

TELLS HOW HE CURED HIMSELF

"I was suffering terribly from stomach trouble and indigestion. I had suffered three or four years and after trying several patent medicines without getting relief I was greatly distressed. I lacked a good appetite and after breakfast I would have vomiting spells and dizzy nervous attacks due to the condition of my stomach. After those years of suffering Acid Iron Mineral was recommended to me as a great remedy for such troubles and I was completely cured of indigestion and sickness after using two bottles. It helped me when nothing else would and I believe it will help others with the same trouble because I know what it will do. It is a great blood purifier too," declared Mr. F. G. Addison, a school teacher at Van Dyke, Va.

Teachers, professors, doctors, surgeons, hospitals, and people all over the United States during the past thirty years have praised this natural highly concentrated iron in liquid form as put up under the Ferrodine Chemical Corp. trade mark, "A-I-M." This trade mark is the user's guarantee of quality and full strength. It is on bottle and carton and Acid Iron Mineral may only be bought in original bottles.

Any man or woman, needing more strength, richer blood, and better digestion and appetite, can, by using this iron, hope to feel an immense improvement in their general health, inside a couple of weeks. Being powerful, economical and harmless, it makes an ideal tonic for seasons of the year when the blood needs cleansing and one feels run down. Get a 12 ounce bottle at your druggist's. This large bottle of which a few drops mixed with water and taken after meals makes a powerful dose. Get a bottle today.—Advertisement.

A NEWARK PAPER OF 40 YEARS AGO HERE REVIEWED

(By Mrs. Martha M. Swartz)
The Newark Weekly Advocate, bearing the date, Friday, October 25, 1878, gives a detailed account of the dedication of the courthouse. The following program was carried out:
Judge Buckingham and S. D. King, esq., presidents of the day.
Prayer, President E. B. Andrews.
Presentation Address, Hon. J. R. Stansberry.
Address of Acceptance, Col. C. H. Kibler.
Dedicatory Address, J. B. Jones.

Address—"The Majesty of the Law."
All addresses—published in full in the issue named—were of a high order of excellence and were well received.
At the close of the regular program, Judge Buckingham made a brief but interesting speech, in which he gave many reminiscences of Newark, its courts and its lawyers in the "olden times." Music for the occasion was furnished by Emerson's famous band and by a male quartet—the Arion—composed of Messrs. J. N. Howard, J. E. Dean, W. B. Falconer and O. A. Pier.
A very pleasant feature of the dedication was the cane presentation to ex-Commissioner Jos. White. The speech was made by Will H. Davis, esq., in behalf of many citizens. The cane was of ebony, with a heavy gold head, bearing a fitting inscription.
In the evening the Licking County Bar Association, fittingly closed the ceremonies of the day by a banquet at the Park House. I regret that the menu is not published. Names of those responding to toasts may be of interest:
"Our Country" J. M. Swartz.
"Ohio" Hon. H. B. Curtis.
"Licking County" Hon. J. R. Stansberry.

"The Judiciary" Supreme Judge Gilmore.
"The Bar" John David Jones, Esq.
"The Clergy" Rev. Father DeCally.
"The Press" A. B. Clark, Esq.
"The County Officials" Judge G. M. Grasser.
"The Ladies" Judge Waldo Taylor.

At the close of the program many distinguished visitors made informal speeches. So ended the dedication. A word about this old paper: It is 29x23 inches; quite unhandy, and judging from the size of the type, nothing was known of eye-contraction.

Merchants evidently believed in advertising as the columns are generously filled—but not one familiar name except Gen. B. Sprague & Co., advertising hardware.
Among the interesting news items might be mentioned: "Indian raid in Kansas. A fight with the Cheyennes and the death of Col. Lewis." The new Chicago. This issue being published just seven years after the Chicago fire gives in brief the vast destruction caused by the fire of Mrs. O'Leary's cow and then describes the wonderful city rebuilt on a spot so black and desolate. Editor Wm. D. Morgan's opinion upon the results of the election and his comments on the three political parties—the Democrats, the Republicans, and the Nationals—then existing.

Among the news briefs: President Hayes owns a section of land at Bismark, Dak.; Dubuque professor teaches ladies how to iron shirts; danger of Brigham Young is reported to have become an actress under the name of Cecil Gray; Caribaldi has sold to a company the privilege of quarrying stone on Capra, with which to pave the streets of same. The entire issue is of such interest it is difficult to omit a single item. And while 40 years is no vast number of years, the difference in style, type and news is so great that it seems long, long ago.

INSCHO CAMP INVESTS IN WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Inscho Camp, Sons of Veterans, installed its officers for the ensuing year, Comrade O. E. Hunt, acting under special commission from headquarters, as installing officer.
Commander, George W. Coulter; senior vice commander, Clark M. Provin; junior vice commander, Chas. E. Root; camp commander, A. B. Palmer; Geo. H. Long, Geo. Hughes; secretary, Edward Kibler, sr.; patriotic instructor, Jos. W. Horner; treasurer, Edward Kibler, jr.; chaplain, Geo. H. Long; guide, Chas. F. Walton; color bearer, Geo. A. Bausch; inner guard, Geo. Hughes; outer guard, Lee Hughes.

The camp determined to have a member each meeting give an account of his father's services in the Civil war, and Dr. C. F. Lange was designated by the commander to make the address at the February meeting. On motion of the treasurer, he was authorized to invest the idle funds of the camp in War Savings certificates. The prospects are bright for the camp the coming year.

RAISE PRICE JUST THE SAME.
Cleveland, Jan. 16.—There are ten times more fish in cold storage in Cleveland this winter than at that time last year and prices are five to ten cents a pound higher, according to District Attorney Vertz, who has been in conference with State Food Administrator Croxton regarding the fixing of fish prices for this city.

OVERLAIN FOLLOWS SUIT.
Oberlin, Jan. 16.—Citizens of this city will feel the force of war economy in earnest next week when a card system will be introduced in an effort to conserve sugar. Families will be limited to three pounds a month for each person. Wheat cards are soon to follow. It is reported.

PEEL OFF THE OLD SKIN, BRING OUT THE NEW.

You know that beneath that muddy, overcast countenance you have a skin that is clear, soft and white. If you could only have this more beautiful skin exposed to view instead of the horrid old skin you now behold in your mirror. You can—and by a very simple, harmless process which you can use yourself. Get an ounce of common mercuric iodine wax at your druggist's and this evening spread a thin coating of it over your face. Tomorrow morning wash it off with warm water. Small powder-like particles of the iodine will come off with the wax. Repeat this daily until all the worn-out skin has been absorbed. Then you'll have a better, healthier looking complexion than you now think possible. Chaps, pimples, spots, freckles, other blemishes and eruptions are of course removed with the skin itself.

DENTAL SURGEONS ARE PREPARING FOR OVERSEAS SERVICE

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Jan. 18.—Dental students who were in their second, third or fourth year, in any recognized dental school when they were drafted into the national army here, may be discharged from the national army for the purpose of enlisting in the medical reserve corps, according to a ruling by Provost Marshal General Crowder, received here.

Instruction from the war department direct that dental surgeons and dental assistants in the proportion of one to each 1000 men, be prepared to accompany the division on overseas service.

An officers' "school of the line" has been opened at Camp Sherman for the 500 officers who have been sent to Camp Sherman, but for whom there are no assignments vacant. The school is designed to keep the officers in close touch with the military establishment.

Brigadier General Holbrook has been designated by Major General Glenn to command the line school. The following branches of the service will be taken up thoroughly: Field service regulations, court-martial duty, administration, the making out of papers and reports for various regiments, map-reading and sketching, musketry, guard duty and hygiene. Lectures of a military character will be delivered by experienced officers, who have seen real service over there.

The school will be continued indefinitely. F. B. Wettsman, president of the Guarantee Title & Trust company, Cleveland, and for many years active in Cleveland Y. M. C. A. work, has entered the army Y. M. C. A. service and will be assigned to building No. 73 as executive secretary.

Rev. A. L. Wilson, formerly pastor of the Wyoming Presbyterian church, Cincinnati, has become executive secretary of building No. 70. S. M. Moore, former sales manager of the Columbus Railway Power Light company, has been assigned to building No. 75.

Commanders of regiments and separate organizations have received instructions that they may grant week-end furloughs to 25 per cent of their enlisted men, and to 25 per cent of their officers—the furloughs to be good from noon on Saturday until 10 o'clock Sunday night. Under exceptional circumstances they may grant furloughs for two days, but furloughs for longer than 10 days will be granted only by the division commander.

AFTER TWO YEARS HE STILL SAYS TO TAKE NERV-WORTH

D. L. Preston reaffirms former endorsement—Keeps the Tonic Always On Hand.
The former endorsement, given to the Nerv-Worth druggist at Ashland, Ky., is as follows:
"For many I have been troubled with indigestion and was very nervous at times. I would be very dizzy. Poor appetite. Could not sleep. And so weak was not fit for work. I have taken a number of medicines but did not get much benefit. A friend recommended Nerv-Worth and I purchased two bottles at your store and took according to directions. I feel so good I want to feel better, so am purchasing the third bottle today. My appetite is good. I sleep well and am not dizzy. My nerves are much improved and am feeling stronger and better every day. I am recommending Nerv-Worth for I find it the best tonic I can purchase."
"D. L. PRESTON, Ashland, Ky."

A Nerv-Worth representative interviewed Mr. Preston a few days ago and found him, after the lapse of over two years, as enthusiastic a friend of Nerv-Worth as ever. Mr. Preston remarked that he still recommends it to friends and neighbors and kept it always on hand, buying three bottles at a time, so that when he feels nervous and bad he can take the remedy and restore normal conditions.

The T. J. Evans Drug Store sells Nerv-Worth in Newark. Dollar back if the tonic doesn't benefit. 1-14-16

DISHONEST NOTARIES.
Cleveland, Jan. 16.—Aroused by reports that young men of draft age are being robbed by some notaries public who swear them to their exemption and other papers. Common Pleas Judge Manuel Levine cleared his court decks for drastic action and announced that he and the other judges of that court will out from office any such notaries apprehended.

WILL PLEASE KIDNAPERS.
Cleveland, Jan. 16.—C. C. Star oil, one of the chief horrors of childhood, has advanced in price nearly 250 per cent druggists say. The cause, they report, is because the government is using it as a lubricant for Liberty motor trucks.

RID STOMACH OF GASES, SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapiesin" Relieves Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs. Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unerring action in regulating sick, sour, gassy, stomach; its quick relief in indigestion, dyspepsia and gastritis when caused by acidity has made it famous the world over.
Keep this wonderful stomach sweetener in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas, causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food; remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach it helps to neutralize the excessive acidity, then all the stomach distress caused by it disappears. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming such stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it. Advertisement.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE PREPARES FOR WORK.

Columbus, Jan. 16.—Preparatory to the 1918 campaign, the Ohio Anti-Saloon league has redistricted the state. The 88 counties have been regrouped and redistricted according to their location, the former Delaware district having been eliminated entirely and a new Columbus district formed.
The other districts which have been renamed are Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dayton, Marietta and Toledo. Marietta is now the headquarters for the Marietta district. The headquarters were moved to Athens during the 1917 campaign.

TO INCREASE ENDOWMENT.

Westerville, Jan. 16.—At every pulpit, Sunday school and Christian society of the United Brethren denomination in Ohio, West Virginia, Michigan, Western Pennsylvania and Western New York on Sunday, Feb. 17, there will be launched a campaign for increasing the endowment of Oberlin University here by $400,000, increasing the student enrollment by 400, and the number of Christian workers by 100.

POLICE CHIEF'S RECORD.

Wilmington, Jan. 15.—Marshal Will Sliker has just entered upon his 25th year as chief police officer of this city and is to receive a 50 per cent increase in salary as voted by the retiring council. Marshal Sliker admits the truth of the story that he has had but one day's vacation in the entire period of his service for the city, having never been away from Wilmington overnight except when on official visits.

QUICK HELP FOR A GROUPY CHILD SIMPLE-HARMLESS

When your child is croupy, cross, feverish, full of cold, restless and irritable, try this:
Get a 25c tube of NOSTROLOA Balm of your druggist, apply to nostrils and on chest and throat—also under armpits and on soles of feet. NOSTROLOA is absolutely harmless (formula on every package) and is endorsed by leading physicians. This simple common-sense treatment will clear the head, instantly stop the terrible choking, croupy cough and quickly change a half-sick, fretful child into a happy, playful one.
The nostrils and air passages are the breeding places for disease germs. NOSTROLOA, either Balm or the Vapor-Spray, is intended to prevent infection and the special Nostrolia Atomizer belongs to every home, especially where there are children.
The old method of dosing the stomach for colds and croup is wrong and harmful. Get a small tube of Nostrolia or an Atomizer at any druggist today and you'll wish you had tried this simple treatment sooner. Advertisement.

Roses in Full Bloom.

Editor of The Advocate—Please send my paper to 532 Fourth avenue South, St. Petersburg, Fla. I have been here two weeks and like it fine. Not very cold, and roses are in full bloom, but I can't do without the Newark Advocate. I hope to stay here until April. This place is beautiful; gardens here with all kinds of vegetables, and we are getting grand fish out of the bay. I hope to get my paper soon. Yours truly, Mrs. Laura Smith, From Hebron, O.

From Dick Curry.

Editor of The Advocate—Your letter received today and I surely was glad to hear from home. This is a fine city and the weather is pretty nice, but it is comfortable with a light overcoat on in the mornings and evenings, but if the sun shines at noon you can take it off and be comfortable. Jacksonville is overflowing with people from all over the United States, and many Ohioans are here. I met Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Rung on the street the other night. They were on their way to Naples, Fla. Mr. A. C. Bigbee and Mr. Arthur Marple are here with us. I have not seen any of the orange groves as yet, but expect to do so within the next few days. They are picking oranges here now, so if you see the boys at the Arcade Barbershop you can tell them that I can look for their oranges soon.
I am getting The Advocate every day and we all fight over it to see who gets it first. I haven't lost a battle yet. Now I want to tell you something about the climate here. One day it is cold; the next day warm, and today (January 9) was about like our May days in Newark. It rains a while, then the sun comes out. Most all of the business houses have their whole fronts open all day long. I am standing this climate fine so far, but Mrs. Curry has had a cold ever since we came, so I don't know how she is going to stand it.

Yours truly, Dick Curry, 205 Market Street, Jacksonville, Fla.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MET TUESDAY EVENING

The regular meeting of the board of education was held last evening in the office of Superintendent Wilson Hawkins in the high school, with the following members present: William E. Miller, Ben L. Montsomer, Clark B. Hatch and J. M. Mitchell. The business of the board followed after the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the clerk, after which the usual bills were allowed. Superintendent Hawkins made a report about the introduction of War Savings stamps into the public schools. Superintendent of supplies, Frank Handel, made his report and the board adjourned until February 5.

FOR USE OF RED CROSS.

The Red Cross has been asked to make sleeveless vests of kid or soft leather for the use of our soldiers in Europe. For this purpose are used bits of kid of any size or color, such as old kid gloves or scraps left from the manufacture of shoes; if it is soft and pliable. The women of Licking county are requested to search their homes for material of this sort and donate it as soon as possible to the Red Cross.

MISS A. M. CLISH TELLS HOW SHE RECOVERED FROM RHEUMATISM THAT DEFORMED JOINTS.

MISS CLISH ON GRETCHES.

bone from my knee and I was ethrized twice to straighten the leg. They told me I would never be able to walk again.
"My strength was exhausted and my stomach in a very weakened condition. Friends insisted that I try Var-ne-sis as I seemed to be growing worse. After taking two bottles of Var-ne-sis my stomach improved wonderfully, my strength returned so that I could use my crutches. I persisted in the treatment until I was able to bend my knee and go up and down stairs without any trouble.

"I am glad to say I am now doing housework and able to go about as well as ever. I have given W. A. Varney my crutches to add to his collection in Boston. No matter how damp and stormy the weather happens to be I am entirely free from pain."

W. A. Varney said: "I wish I could convey to sufferers from rheumatism what Var-ne-sis is doing. I wish I could bring them face to face with those who have recovered through Var-ne-sis."
"I am constantly producing evidence that Var-ne-sis conquers chronic rheumatism and I ask that sufferers from this disease investigate each case. Var-ne-sis does not contain salicylates, opiates, soda, iodides, capicum-pepper, or any of the usual anti-rheumatic drugs. It tends to help the stomach and can not harm the heart.
